

Capability Statement

WHO WE ARE

Soteria provides specialist strategic support to organisations working to strengthen their response to domestic abuse. Founded by Shani Rodda and shaped by lived experience, frontline practice and over a decade of strategic expertise, Soteria combines practical insight with evidence-based consultancy to help organisations develop effective strategies, strengthen governance, improve services and deliver lasting organisational change.

Working in partnership to create safer communities and better futures for survivors and their children.”
